GENERAL INTRODUCTION

The aims of teaching English as a foreign language at secondary level are as follows :

𝔅 to help the learners achieve the necessary language proficiency to meet the requirements of the English Baccalaureate paper ;

𝔅 to help them develop an awareness of cultural differences and hence of their own cultural identity;

 \mathbf{R} to promote understanding of other cultures ;

ca to enable the learners, in the course of post secondary education or training to use reference material in English ;

 \mathbf{R} to meet the needs of the job market ;

In order to meet these aims, a set of fluency -and accuracy – based activities, among other things, has been suggested for each year of secondary education . It is hoped that in the final year of secondary education the students will be both fluent and accurate in their dealing with various materials including culturally-oriented texts.

- How will I be assessed?

- 1- Through semestrial exam.
- 2- Through classroom tests which is composed of:
- Three written examinations per semester.
- Verbal skills.
- Homework.
- Calculating termly average concerning classroom tests (m):

Consider that:

- Nd is written examinations average.
- No verbal skills mark.
- Ni homework mark.

Therefore, classroom tests average will be:

m= (Ndx3)+No+Ni
