Dear Scott,

Well, I am at Camp Wilderness. It's big and we're in a huge park near a lake. We're a long way from any people or shops.

There are about seventy-five of us here. I'm sharing a cabin with five other boys. Everyone speaks some English but I'm learning a bit of Spanish from José, the Spanish boy. The American, Dan, sleeps in the bed next to me and he snores! The Polish guy is nice. His name is impossible to pronounce. It begins with G so we call him "Gee". The Italian boy, Bruno, has got a girlfriend back home in Italy and he always phones her on his mobile first thing in the morning and last thing at night. Sad!!

The day starts early - at half past six! I always get up late so when I get to the showers there's usually no more hot water! We have breakfast in a huge barn. I usually only have Cornflakes and toast but we get waffles and muffins and eggs if we want them. The food's good here.

After breakfast we do our activities. At the moment I'm going rock climbing in the morning and canoeing in the afternoon. Tonight we're going to have a karaoke party. There's a really nice Italian girl here called Giouanna. I think she likes me because she always smiles at me at meal times. Anyway, I'm going to sit next to her at the party tonight.

I must go. My canoeing lesson starts in five minutes and I mustn't be late.

See you soon. Greg
