Dear parents,

I am studying with a group of sixty students. They come from different countries: Spain, Italy, Turkey, Egypt, Syria and Morocco.

For the moment, we are staying at a hotel in the centre of Paris. It is not comfortable and the rooms are small. We all go to a language centre near the hotel.

Every morning, we have language lessons from 9 to 12. We are free in the afternoons, but we sometimes go to the library. The lessons are not very interesting, but the teachers are nice. They want us to speak French all the time, but I prefer to speak English with my Moroccan friend, Anas.

Next Saturday afternoon, we are visiting two famous places in Paris : the Eiffel Tower and le " Louvre" Museum. In the evening, my friend and I are going to the cinema.

How are you all? Please say hello to my grandfather.

Tom
